Til Bräutigam, born 1964, married, 4 daughters, has been a partner at BERG-STRASSE NOTARY OFFICE since spring 1996.

After graduating from Christianeum in Hamburg in 1982, he began studying law at Albert Ludwig University in Freiburg and moved to Berlin in 1985, where he passed his first state exam in 1987. Til Bräutigam did his legal clerkship at the Kammergericht Berlin from 1988 to 1992 with a short interruption during which he wrote his doctoral thesis. After the 2nd state examination in the fall of 1992, he returned to his hometown Hamburg and was appointed as judge in several departments at the Hamburg District Court until he took up his duties as an assessor of notaries in Hamburg in January 1994. From January 1994 to April 1996, Dr. Bräutigam completed his assessor's period in various Hamburg notary's offices and thus had the opportunity to become acquainted with all facets of notarial duties.

Today, Dr. Bräutigam is an expert in all notarial matters, in particular in the real estate sector and property-projects development, and advises and assists various companies in all matters of corporate law.
